This Is Not My Name

Dear Yeshua,

The following is a copy of a secure email I sent just minutes ago to Murray Morris and Dan Bettle.

Murray,

With my going to a new Church, I am using my birth name of Charles.

This is due in part to a somewhat recent phenomenon of HR being able to slip in a word of ridicule at me through other Believers, by having them greet me with the word “up”, right before using the nick-name “Chuck”. This turns my nick name into sounding like “upchuck”, which literally means “to vomit”.

HR is then able to use my fellow Christian to equate me with vomit. Someone will see me and say (something like) “What’s up, Chuck?”

This is HR being able to influence Christians because they fail to take every thought captive, BEFORE it activates their tongue.

However, the greeting phrase of “what’s up, Charles?” has no connection to vomit, nor can it be made to sound like it does.

I actually began doing this a year ago when I started going to Seattle Revival Center.

—Chuck

P. S. It occurs to me that one of the reasons this can happen, is that “I take the war with me”, or, “the war follows me around”. Which means that whatever HR elements are present, they reveal themselves by attacking me with words through others.

But this is to their undoing, since it reveals their presence and location. Easy shots. ROE3 all the way!

END EMAIL.

Blessings...
