

Letter 801
DREAM
Jesus, The Bridegroom
2019-06-01

Dear Yeshua,

Sunday, 1 June 2019, 9AM.

I had a dream a long time ago, which I think was in late 2002. But it could have been in early 2003. While I don't remember the specific date, I have always remembered clearly the exact content of the dream.

I DREAMED THAT:

I had just walked into the Master Bedroom of my House. As soon as I entered, I saw Jesus standing at the opposite side of our Waterbed, at my wife (M)'s side. He is facing me, and I can see that His is fully naked, and His male vessel is fully erect.

Then seemingly from "out of nowhere", He stretches out His right arm and grabs a full length White Robe, which He then quickly slips over His head in order to cover His nakedness.

END OF DREAM.

I remember waking up feeling very comforted. And while it seemed like I should have been, I was not embarrassed at all.

But to this day I still do not know the full meaning of this dream.

Blessings...

R. C. Theophilus
