

— MR. SPOCK —

CATronaut

R.I.P.

Mar 1982 - Mar 1996

Mr. Spock was beamed up today.
Where he went I cannot say.

I moved the lever that energized him home,
But we know his soul is not alone.

Perhaps he's with The Captain
Aboard a speeding ship.

Waiting for his Redemption
At the end of this Human Trek.

Or he could be in a Peaceful Place
Along with others of his kind.

Joking and laughing with his friends
Not a trouble on his mind.

One thing though I know for sure,
No matter where he's got.

Whether on a planet or in the Sky,
Lost in Space he's not!

Ecclesiastes 3:21

21 Who knows whether the spirit of man goes upward and the spirit of the beast goes down into the earth?

Romans 8:18-24

19 ... For the creation waits with eager longing for the revealing of the sons of God ...

© 2 April 1996 CT Janitor

May be freely copied and distributed at no cost to the recipient.