

—THE SETTLEMENT—

March 4th, 1997

Six figures short of seven.
Mindful it is naught but Leaven.
Half thereof and a little more,
We'll make it last if we avoid The Store.

And this is just the first part.
There's more according to our Attorney.
To make a testing of our heart
And provide for this life's journey.

In addition to this agreement
The best is yet to come.
We'll walk the streets of Golden Pavement
Purchased by a King's Ransom.
