

Dear R.C.,

Thank you for your recent letter and kind comments regarding my messages at [REDACTED]. The quote you referred to is very much part of the perceptions of the "Church Fathers" towards women which has affected even current attitudes about women in the church. I would recommend a book by Loren Cunningham, founder of YWAM, titled, Why Not Women? It's an excellent book, co-written by a theologian, dealing with some of the stickier passages in the Bible related to women in ministry. I think you would enjoy it.

Sincerely, [REDACTED]

"In The Volume Of The Book It Is Written Of Me" Letter Of Apology

14 June 2013

Dear Lady,

In accordance with the will of the Almighty Father in Heaven, and by His Son the Word of God, and by the Power of the Holy Spirit, please accept this Letter Of Apology.

I apologize for the abuse caused by men toward women, and for these;

For loving God less than you,

For loving you less than myself,

For causing restrictions within the family not authorized by the Father,

For taking other wives to be your rival(s),

For ignoring the Holy Spirit, Who teaches me how to understand you.

For all these things and more, I do humbly apologize, as a man to a woman, and on bended knees do take these things before the Cross and the Throne of God, where Christ Jesus is seated with all authority.

With humility not my own and most sincerely,

Romanus Christian Theophilus
